Old Business

- Fatal Vision goggle event sponsored by the Dayspring BUDS group went well.
- Hands Free Poster Contest finished up with 14 entries. Five prizes were awarded to students from 5 different high schools.

Treasurer's Report

See attached.

Grants, upcoming opportunities and updates

- The E470 grant was submitted with the requested amount of $10,000.
- The State Farm grant ($30,000) was received.
- The AAA grant is still being researched.
- Sue and Marilyn met with the CDOT representative. The next grant period will be March of 2026. She thought we might connect with Drive Smart Colorado to share ideas.

Outreach Specialist Report

- Took photos and distributed checks to the Hands Free Law poster contest winners. One of the students is still on spring vacation.
- Seat belt checkpoint coming up next week.
- Marilyn spoke with Janet at Platte Valley. There are going to be many changes at school so perhaps a new group will take on the BUDS activity next year. Marilyn will speak to the principal.
- Marilyn will be wrapping up the BUDS group check distribution awards after the activity deadline the end of March.

Social Media Coordinator Report

- Social media platforms continue to increase in visibility.
- Upcoming focus will be
 - Motorcycle awareness
 - Pedestrian Safety
 - Distracted driving month

- Motorcycle safety month
- Have not received a promo package from State Farm so will write a press release without one.

Upcoming Events

GPD Junior Academy in June.

Open Floor

- Marilyn will take responsibility for keeping up with traffic related legislation.
- Trailer needs to be organized and assessed.
